GEORGE W. CRAMER

One of the best known and popular residents of Wauseon passed away from his home on East Chestnut St., Friday evening, October 24th at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Cramer was a familiar figure in Wauseon and was a useful citizen. He will be missed by many here in town who had grown into the habit of depending upon his services. Known that he was to be relied upon.

George W. Cramer, son of Barney and Elizabeth Cramer, was born in Hancock County, October 16th, 1845 and had attained the age of seventy-four years and eight days. Of a family of four brothers and one sister, all but one brother, Mr. Barney Cramer of Ligonier, Indiana, have preceded him into the Great Beyond.

He leaves to mourn their loss his wife, four sons, one daughter, three grandchildren, one brother, other relatives and a host of neighbors and friends. Funeral services were held at the home on East Chestnut Street, Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Hopkins, pastor of the United Brethren church.

It is easier to break up a cold or check a cough now than it will be later. Persistent coughs that "hang on" all winter pave the way for serious throat and lung diseases. L. W. Day, 65 Campbell Ave., E. Detroit, Mich. writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar relieves one of bronchitis very quickly." Pink & Haumesser.

Favored Styles in Women's
New Fall Coats

Their simple lines and their rich fabrics makes them so, while their trimmings, unique cuff and collar features and belted effects give them distinction. Women seeking the latest in coats will find our assortment especially appealing this season. Our showing is made chiefly of broadcloths, serges, gabardine and pile fabrics.

Look around and you will find that our garments are especially low priced in comparison to other stores.

How about that new stove?

You would almost think we were having a special stove week in our Hardware Section this week judging from the stoves that are being sold and delivered into Fulton County homes this week. Our representative lines of stoves and ranges—The Florence Hot Blast, The Round Oak Heaters and Ranges, The South Bend Malleable, tell the whole story. They almost sell themselves. Your neighbor or friend probably has one of them.
